WHAT THE WET BOBS ARE DOING

Four of the Myrtle rowers are in the doctors' hands. Soper is convalescing from an attack of pleurisy, while Sorenson, Martin and Lishman are suffering from infected chafes.

The Junior boat has reached that stage of development where the men row well individually but badly as a crew. The past week has been a discouraging one, but such weeks are common to all clubs five or six weeks before a race and a general falling off is inevitably followed by a spurt of enthusiasm which pervades the boats.

The Healanis have at last settled down to steady work. Their boats are made up as follows:

Senior-Jarrett, stroke; Renear, No. 3; Spencer, No. 2; Boisse, bow.
Junior-Tracy, stroke; Walker, No. 3; Webster, No. 2; Murray, bow.

Every man in the Junior boat is over six feet tall and the crew, as far as physique goes, is perhaps the most uniform one that has ever rowed in the harbor. They need coaching badly. The men individually are strong and well muscled—in fact, too well so to be easily taught. The worst thing about the crew is their absence of blade work. On the recovery the blades go back on top instead of clear of the water.

In the Senior boat the good time is particularly noticeable. Numbers 3 and 4 are not to be compared with 1 and 2. The former are two as good men as can be seen in the harbor. The latter are rowing in mediocre fashion.

The crew affects the long body swing. They appear to work very hard but fail to get a corresponding amount of speed out of their boat.

The Myrtles have secured the use of Clarence Macfarlane's house at Pearl Harbor during the months of June and July for training purposes. It is expected that the crews will go down on Monday, June 17.

Another relay swimming race will be held at the Healan headquarters tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

Renear's team will be composed of W. Madeira, W. Heilbron, B. Heilbron, Dave Dayton and himself. Kidd will have Paul Jarrett, Harry Murray, Bert Webster, himself and one other man. Reynolds announced that he would not race this week, but he made a good showing last Sunday and may decide to remain with the old team. Murray has been added in place of J. H. Harrison, who will be unable to take part in the sport tomorrow.

Jack Atkinson will have a team and there may be even a fourth to compete. The course will be the same as that swam last Sunday.

WHOOPIING COUGH.

A woman who has had experience with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby boy being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest little girl would call lustily for cough syrup between whoops. Jesse Pinkley Hall, Sprinville, Ala. This remedy is for sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents.

LAUGHABLE SHOW AT THE ORPHEUM

They had a thoroughly good time at the Orpheum last night. I say they, advisedly, as the actors seemed to be enjoying themselves as thoroughly as the spectators. It must have been only seemingly though, as thanks to the mischief-making propensities of Jessie Norton, every actor in the cast at some time in the evening was either hit with something, sat down on nothing and had something fall upon him or her, irrespective of sex. This in a semi-tropical climate is both hot and hard work. But it was funny, to the audience. The author of "Mrs. Partington and Her Son Ike" seems to have gathered every piece of funny business ever enacted upon the stage and condensed it into his play. The result is to a degree nonsensical, but it is funny.

Elleford, as Mrs. Partington, with her series of fearfully misapplied words and sentences, was excellent. Aside from the many purely nonsensical stunts that the role calls for, Mr. Elleford gave an excellent impersonation of the voluble widow, contriving to be what few male actors succeed in being, a woman in woman's clothing, and not a palpable man aping the feminine. Jessie Norton, as the boy, was a source of constant delight. The various types were well drawn, and the beauty of the whole performance was the clockwork precision with which the complicated effects were worked out. Many of the things laughed at were conceived in a spirit of sheer idiosyncrasy, but they compelled laughter from the rise to the fall of the curtain.

If laughing is healthy the performance at the Orpheum is outlined on the strictest rules of hygiene.

A crowded house attended, the rumor having gone round that the order of the night was "to laugh," and a good many were disappointed. The management has determined to make a definite rule, that will not be deviated from under any circumstances, to the effect that no unpaid seats will be held after 8 o'clock. This rule is only a fair one, as there are usually a number of people unable to get seats, and the holding of orders has often resulted in a dead loss to the management.

NOTICE.
HEREAFTER THE TIME OF DEPARTURE FROM HONOLULU OF THE STEAMER MAUNA LOA will be at 12 o'clock noon. Shippers are hereby notified that freight will not be received after 10 o'clock a. m. on day of sailing. This rule will be strictly enforced.
